Bonus Seminar Prior to Conference

MAY 26, 2025

Course Title: Sniffs, Sweeps, and Search Warrants: A Masterclass for Tactical Cops

Duration: 2-Hours

Course Description: This advanced-level course is designed for officers who operate in high-stakes environments where every decision must be legally sound and tactically sharp. From K9 sniffs on traffic stops to protective sweeps inside homes and the lawful development of search warrants, this masterclass bridges the gap between proactive policing and constitutional compliance.

Participants will gain a deep understanding of the Fourth Amendment case law that governs:

- K9 deployments and their legal limitations
- Home entries, knock-and-talks, and curtilage considerations
- Protective sweeps and officer safety exceptions
- Establishing and articulating probable cause
- Using alerts and observations to build search warrant affidavits

Through real-world scenarios, landmark court rulings, and instructor-led analysis, attendees will leave with the tools to confidently justify their actions — in reports, on the stand, and under scrutiny. Whether you're a K9 handler, tactical officer, interdiction cop, or patrol supervisor, this course will sharpen your legal edge and elevate your operational decisions.

DAY 1

MAY 27, 2025

Course Title: Street Tested, Court Approved: The Legal Edge That Separates Good from Great

Duration: 90 minutes

Course Description: Every officer knows how to make stops — but not every officer knows how to make them stick. Street Tested, Court Approved is a high-impact course designed to elevate your understanding of case law, sharpen your field tactics, and give you the legal edge that turns a solid cop into a great one.

This course focuses on the moments that matter most — the split-second decisions that win in the field and hold up in court. You'll learn how to confidently navigate:

- The line between lawful detention and unlawful seizure
- Real-time decision-making under the Fourth Amendment
- Tactics that are not only effective, but court-defensible
- How to articulate your actions in a way that withstands suppression challenges

If you're tired of watching good cases get thrown out because of bad articulation, missed details, or misunderstood law, this course will give you the tools to ensure your work is both street smart and court strong. Whether you're on patrol, interdiction, or a specialized unit — this is where good cops level up.

MAY 27, 2025

Course Title: 20 Things That Save Lives in Emergencies

Duration: 90 minutes

Course Description: In law enforcement, you are often the first — and only — line of help before EMS arrives. 20 Things That Save Lives in Emergencies is a fast-paced, hands-on course packed with lifesaving tools, tactics, and field-proven techniques every officer can use immediately in real-world emergencies. Taught with insight and practical tips from a 20-year tactical paramedic instructor, this class goes beyond textbook knowledge. You'll learn what actually works under stress, in chaos, and in the critical moments when lives hang in the balance. Whether it's a shooting, overdose, vehicle crash, or a fellow officer in distress — this course gives you the confidence to take immediate action and save lives. Street cops, SROs, detectives, supervisors — this training is built for you.

MAY 27, 2025

Course Title: The Real Story of the Breonna Taylor Shooting:

Duration: 90 Minutes

Course Description: Join Sgt. John Mattingly for a candid and detailed account of the events surrounding the Breonna Taylor shooting. This one-hour presentation provides an insider perspective on the incident, including the planning, execution, and aftermath of the operation. Sgt. Mattingly offers firsthand insights into the challenges law enforcement faced, the decision-making processes involved, and the legal and public scrutiny that followed. Designed to foster understanding and dialogue, this session is an opportunity to examine a high-profile case through the lens of someone who lived it, offering valuable lessons for law enforcement professionals navigating complex, high-stakes situations.

MAY 27, 2025

Course Title: Car Hauler Interdiction: Hidden Compartments, Loaded Rigs, and Criminal Cargo

Duration: 90 minutes

Course Description: Drug traffickers and organized criminal networks are using car haulers to move contraband, stolen vehicles, and illicit proceeds across the country — often hiding in plain sight. Car Hauler Interdiction is a specialized course designed to give officers the legal knowledge, tactical skills, and street-smart indicators needed to successfully identify and intercept criminal activity on transport trailers. Led by experienced interdiction officers, this course breaks down the realities of stopping and investigating car haulers — from spotting deception to uncovering sophisticated concealment methods.

You'll learn:

- Indicators of criminal transport and fraudulent vehicle shipments
- Title fraud schemes and VIN manipulation common in car hauler loads • How to develop reasonable suspicion and probable cause during these stops • Search and seizure tactics that hold up in court
- How to handle commercial vehicle stop procedures lawfully and safely • Officer safety considerations with drivers, passengers, and bystanders • Hidden compartments, aftermarket modifications, and concealment trends • Building cases that lead to seizures, arrests, and federal referrals

This is a tactical, no-fluff course built for interdiction teams, highway officers, and street cops who want to sharpen their skills, increase their seizures, and dismantle organized crime on the road. If you patrol the highway, you need this course.

MAY 28, 2025

Course Title: Mastering Behavioral Deception: How to Read, Detect, and Disrupt Lies

Duration: 90 minutes

Course Description: The ability to detect deception is one of the most powerful tools an officer can possess — but it takes more than gut instinct to get it right. Mastering Behavioral Deception teaches you how to recognize the subtle, often overlooked behaviors that signal dishonesty, evasion, and hidden intent during traffic stops, interviews, and field encounters. This course blends modern behavioral science with real-world law enforcement experience to help you spot the lie before it's spoken — and use that knowledge to guide your questions, control the interaction, and uncover the truth.

You'll learn:

- The difference between baseline behavior and deceptive shifts
- Verbal and nonverbal cues linked to stress, concealment, and fabrication
- High-frequency deceptive behaviors during roadside stops and interviews
- How to build psychological pressure that reveals inconsistencies
- Techniques to disrupt deception and steer subjects into truth-telling
- Body language indicators, eye movement myths, and credible analysis
- How to articulate observed behaviors in reports and testimony

Whether you're working interdiction, criminal investigations, or patrol — this course gives you the upper hand in uncovering deception and controlling conversations with confidence. Stop guessing. Start reading people like a pro.

MAY 28, 2025

Course Title: Spotting the Signs: Critical Behavioral Cues That Warn of Imminent Threats

Duration: 90 minutes

Course Description: Violence doesn't happen without warning — it happens without recognition. In this powerful and practical course, officers will learn to identify the critical pre-assault indicators that often precede violent encounters, giving them the awareness and tactical advantage to act before it's too late. Spotting the Signs is built around real-world encounters, body language science, and officer survival tactics. This course breaks down the subtle — but highly reliable — cues that people exhibit when preparing to attack, flee, or escalate.

You'll learn:

- Detect nonverbal threat cues such as grooming gestures, blading, weight shifts, and scanning
- Recognize signs of psychological escalation and stress overload
- Identify behavioral patterns common in ambushes, assaults, and weapons concealment
- Control space, posture, and positioning to enhance officer safety
- Articulate pre-attack behaviors in reports and courtroom testimony

Whether you're on patrol, working interdiction, handling crowd control, or interacting with emotionally unstable subjects, this course provides you with the tools to stay ahead of the threat. You won't just react — you'll recognize, respond, and survive.

MAY 28, 2025

Course Title: Street-Level Gun Interdiction for Cops

Duration: 90 minutes

Course Description: Illegally carried firearms are one of the most immediate threats to officer safety and public security — and they're often hiding in plain sight. Street-Level Gun Interdiction for Cops is a focused, high-intensity course designed to give officers the skills and legal knowledge to recognize, detect, and lawfully recover firearms from individuals engaged in criminal activity. This class blends real-world tactics, criminal behavior recognition, and case law-backed procedures to help officers safely and successfully interdict guns during patrol encounters, traffic stops, pedestrian contacts, and investigative detentions.

You'll learn:

- Behavioral indicators and body language of armed individuals
- Common concealment methods and waistband awareness
- Tactical positioning, approach strategies, and partner coordination
- Legal standards for reasonable suspicion, probable cause, and frisking for weapons
- Articulation techniques to defend gun recoveries in court
- Officer safety protocols and high-risk encounter management

Whether you're a rookie cop, proactive street officer, or seasoned interdiction unit member, this course delivers immediately applicable tools to increase gun recoveries and reduce risk. Because the gun you don't find is the one that gets used.

MAY 28, 2025

Course Title: Empowered by the Constitution

Duration: 90 minutes

Course Description: The Constitution is more than a legal boundary — it's a powerful tool for good policing. Empowered by the Constitution is a dynamic course designed to elevate your understanding of how constitutional law not only protects the rights of citizens, but also strengthens your ability to do your job with clarity, confidence, and integrity. This training goes beyond surface-level knowledge and dives into what it means to be a modern law enforcement officer whose decisions, actions, and presence are rooted in legal authority. With real-world examples, impactful instruction, and mindset-shifting guidance, this course will redefine how you see your role in today's legal landscape. Officers will leave this course not only better informed — but empowered to act decisively, defend their actions, and uphold the law with purpose. Constitutionally grounded. Tactically sound. Professionally unshakable.

MAY 28, 2025

Course Title: Cybercrime Essentials: Investigations Every Officer Can Do

Duration: 90 minutes

Course Description: You don't need to be a digital forensics expert to investigate cyber-related crime — you just need the right tools, tactics, and mindset. Cybercrime Essentials is a practical, street-level course designed to show every officer how to recognize, initiate, and assist in digital investigations that matter. From online threats to digital evidence in everyday cases, this course simplifies the complex world of cybercrime and connects it directly to the work you're already doing. Whether you're handling fraud, harassment, narcotics, or property crimes — chances are, there's a digital trail waiting to be followed.

Taught by seasoned investigators with real-world experience, this course demystifies cyber investigations and shows you how to:

- Recognize cyber components in routine calls
- Properly handle and preserve digital evidence
- Document digital findings for successful prosecution
- Know when and how to escalate a case to specialized units

If you carry a badge, you can work cybercrime. This course shows you how — without needing to write code or carry a hard drive. Digital evidence is everywhere. Learn how to find it, use it, and turn it into results.

MAY 28, 2025

Course Title: Turn Legal Confusion into Tactical Precision

Duration: 90 minutes

Course Description: Uncertainty in the law leads to hesitation in the field — and hesitation can cost you your case, your credibility, or worse. Turn Legal Confusion into Tactical Precision is a high-impact course built to eliminate guesswork and replace it with confident, court-defensible decision-making. This training bridges the gap between legal knowledge and tactical application. You'll learn how to operate decisively in high-pressure situations, knowing your actions are backed by the Constitution and validated by case law. No more second-guessing. No more gray areas. Just clear, lawful policing grounded in real-world experience.

You'll learn:

- Officers will leave this course empowered to:
- Make fast, confident legal decisions in dynamic environments
- Understand where the legal lines are — and how to stay on the right side of them
- Articulate actions clearly and defensibly in reports and court testimony
- Use constitutional authority as both a tactical advantage and professional safeguard

If you want to elevate your performance, protect your cases, and build a reputation for doing it right — this is the course that takes you there. From confusion to clarity. From reactive to reliable. This is how you lead.
